OCTOBER 2020

EDITORIAL

ISSUE 318

At the time of writing we have just been issued with the new 'Rule of Six', restricting our social interaction with friends and family and, by the time you read this, more government laws limiting our daily activities may very well have come into force. Many of us are understandably feeling anxious in these uncertain times and are finding it difficult to accept the restrictions on our lives. We feel sad that we are no longer able to mingle face-to-face with loved ones, yet we know thousands of people in the world have no contact of any kind with their families, due to wars or other disasters. These people would be overjoyed just to be able to have one phone call from a loved one. We grumble because we have to queue and can no longer wander around the supermarket at will, yet we are only too well aware that many people, in this country as well as around the world, have no food of any kind to feed their children. We complain about the government insisting on our wearing face-masks and socially distancing, but we see on the news daily that people are being beaten, imprisoned or even killed simply for expressing opinions against their government. Why do we get annoyed, make ourselves unhappy and spoil our days because of what are often relatively minor inconveniences? Let's just be grateful for each new day and celebrate the good things in life: the good people, our community and the beauty all around us.

I shall get down off my soapbox and give thanks once more to those good people of St Teath who are soldiering on and keeping our spirits up: Lynne and the staff of the Post Office, Kevin and Luke at the butchers and now, thank goodness, Kerri and the girls in the café and Barry and the staff of the White Hart. As Dr Johnson put it, "There is nothing which has yet been contrived by man, by which so much happiness is produced as by a good tavern." But, as even Barry would be the first to admit, in this village the café is the tavern's equal in that respect. A huge THANK YOU to all our local businesses – and let us hope villagers will show their appreciation in a practical way by continuing to support our local tradespeople once this crisis is over and we are allowed to spread our wings once more.

FROM OUR COUNTY COUNCILLOR

As the work at Cornwall Council moves from the emergency response to Covid-19 into a recovery phase, there are a lot of decisions to be made around projects and committee work that were put on hold, with a view to which areas can now be completed in the last seven months of this administration before the next local elections in May 2021.

Ever since my election to Cornwall Council in 2016, I have been working consistently on three major projects in the Parish and I am pleased to report that all of them are to be taken forward and have both the commitment from Cornwall Council to complete and the funding in place.

Cornwall Council has had a statutory obligation to conduct a Community Governance Review which sought representations from all 213 Town and Parish Councils in Cornwall to see if their governance or boundaries could be amended to improve local democracy. I have long held the view that both villages in the parish would benefit from each being represented by individual councils. This view was overwhelmingly backed by residents from both villages during my consultations and those conducted by Cornwall Council. This review will now be taken forward, and Delabole will become a parish in its own right from May 2021 with its own parish council. I will provide further details in the coming months, but this will present opportunities for both villages and make it much easier for each village to concentrate on their own priorities in the future.

Shortly before I was elected, a girl was struck by a car in St Teath and one of the first requests from residents was to ensure that Cornwall Council made good on a report for traffic calming in the village. This was completed in December 2016 with several options for a 20-mph zone, and after a village consultation a consensus around a potential scheme was reached. Securing funding for the preferred scheme has been a challenge – however working closely with our planning officers and a local developer funding has finally been secured through a s106 agreement on a small development at the entrance to Bramble-side which is nearing completion. I can confirm that the scheme has the green light from Cormac and will progress in 2021.

Finally, the most consistent traffic issue raised to me by residents in Delabole has been the pinch point in the High Street adjacent to the entrance to Charlottes Way which causes traffic jams on a daily basis, and often can only be resolved by cars and lorries mounting the pavement leaving pedestrians at best inconvenienced and at worst at risk of being hit. This problem is long-standing and has escalated as traffic numbers have increased year on year. I have had many reports that this summer has been one of the worst. Through multiple consultations in the village, many options have been explored and eventually a potential solution has emerged. This has now been worked up by a firm of highways consultants and will come back to the village as a formal consultation by Cormac this autumn. Despite the significant price tag of the proposal, I have commitment from Cornwall Council for full funding as they recognise the considerable work that has gone into listening to the views of the community in shaping the scheme and understand that this has been a problem that has blighted the village for many years and will benefit the wider area.

TONY THOMPSON

The maximum number of mourners permitted to attend a burial in these restricted times gathered in St Teath cemetery to pay their last respects to this solitary, eccentric but very likeable man. With the passing of Tony Thompson, who lived in the bungalow Crimond, next to the triangle of grass by Carkeen lane, the village has lost another of its unique characters. Tony moved to St Teath over forty years ago from Birmingham where he was born and brought up. Tony's mother came with him, but died soon afterwards, leaving him to lead a solitary and unconventional lifestyle from then on. To those who took the time to get to know him Tony was a very well-informed, interesting and kind-hearted man, who was always ready to help anyone out.

Those who knew Tony best believe that his very strict upbringing, followed by the death of both parents in quick succession, had the effect of suddenly giving him total freedom to enjoy all he had been denied in childhood. This started with acquiring all kinds of gadgets and gradually led to the obsessive hoarding of anything and everything, that became his hallmark over the years. The astounding accumulation of material of all kinds in his house and garden could also have been due to Tony's kindly nature, not wishing to hurt people's feelings by refusing whatever he was offered, no matter what it was.

Marc, Tony's friend and neighbour from the Poplars is intending to plant an apple tree on the triangle in memory of Tony, this self-effacing character, who is sadly missed by many more people than he would ever have imagined. We send our condolences and sympathy to Marc, Terry and Richard, Tony's close friends.

THANKS

We want to say a very big 'Thank you' to the TIMEPIECE TEAM. It is very uplifting – that beautiful photograph on the front cover, then David's wonderful dahlias on the next page! Hours of work go into producing it. So, thank you all very much, it is very much appreciated.

STELLA & EDWIN

Thank you ST TEATH! Members of St Teath Church would like to say a huge thank you to everyone who has contributed to the stall outside Brualen, either by bringing or buying produce. A fantastic £1000 has been raised in the past month! The proceeds will help to make up for the shortfall in donations during the pandemic, with the church not yet being open every day as normal. Many thanks also to Lorraine and David Jasper for hosting and maintaining the stall. St Teath has done it again! Thank you one and all.

A big thank you to everyone who has left gifts for Wadebridge Foodbank in the church collecting tub, and to those who have given a donation in return for a face mask. The effect of the virus has made life particularly hard for many local families, and your help is really appreciated!

ST TEATH COMMUNITY BUS – A THANK YOU TO BOB FOX

We would like to say a very big thank you to our retiring Chairman Bob Fox. Bob has decided to step down after many years of commitment to the Community Bus, first as a driver then as Treasurer and finally Chairman, organising all the day-to-day aspects of the running of the bus. He also instigated and organised the purchase of two new buses for the village with fundraising and grants.

We will miss his unique organisational skills and his lovely sense of humour. I am sure you will join with us in wishing him a heartfelt thank you and all the best for the future.

We would also like to take this opportunity to welcome our new Chairman, Tom Imber and thank him very much for taking over from Bob.

ST TEATH COMMUNITY BUS IMPORTANT NOTICE

The current Friday service to Wadebridge Tesco and Wadebridge town centre will now revert to its normal times. It will leave the White Hart at 9.30am returning to St Teath at 12.00 pm. The cost of this trip is still £3.

The Monday Truro service is a bookable service only. Ring Tom Imber on 01208 592711 to book. The number of passengers is limited to seven. The cost of this trip is still £5.

The organisers reserve the right to cancel either of these services if the current situation changes.

The Truro service will leave St Teath at 9.30 am and return from Truro at 2.00pm.

We understand that people are cautious about using the bus, but we would like to reassure everybody that we are taking all the necessary COVID precautions to keep everybody safe. To help us achieve this, please note the following:

- Always follow the driver's instructions. They will direct which seats are to be used and then direct you in order when leaving the bus.
- Please sanitise your hands before entering the bus with gel provided by the driver.
- Please wear a face mask whilst you are on the bus.
- Note that the bus will be sanitised prior to each part of the trip.
- Only carry on to the bus small items such as handbags, umbrellas etc.
- Shopping in bags will be carried at the rear of the bus and will be loaded and unloaded by the driver through the rear doors. No loose items or items other than shopping will be carried.

COMMUNITY BUS NEWS

We thought you may be interested to hear news of our original bus, which went on to a new life in Kosovo. The bus is still going strong, it is being used almost every day to transport children from various parts of the country to the hospital for dialysis. you can see the Community of St Teath is thanked on the bus. It is very popular with the children who despite everything enjoy their journeys.

It is obviously being well cared for by the Rotary Club members who travel the country on a regular basis.

COMMUNITY CENTRE NEWS—Groups of Six

- The Community Centre Committee would like to clarify the Centre's position following the Prime Minister's announcement on groups of six people,
- We are classed as a Covid-19 safe building, due to the safety measures we have put in place. This means that we can still host 12 people in the Centre but people must not gather in groups of more than 6 persons and face coverings must be worn. At this time we cannot accept private bookings but registered groups can continue as normal providing they observe the above.
- Group leaders will need to complete a questionnaire and a risk assessment before restarting. Copies available from Lynne (beavis356@btinternet.com) or Sue (01208 850002)

ST TEATH SCHOOL REPORT

As we come back to the start of the new year, we have so many thankyou's to say. Staff and volunteers have been busy over the summer transforming the school and grounds. Rooms have been repainted, fencing has been mended, the grounds and flower beds have been weeded and the front wall repainted. We are so fortunate to have such a great team of people willing to give up their spare time to support the school and we are truly grateful.

Besides this, our PTA have been running a fundraising project to get us a new temporary classroom on to the school site. When we started this, we were picturing an old, second-hand container building that would serve its purpose. Instead, with the amazing support of our incredible community, we have ordered a brand-new classroom cabin that will be delivered in the last week of September. Volunteers have already prepared the ground for us and we are very excited about the classroom's imminent arrival. I can't thank everyone enough for their contributions and support. This project will transform education at St Teath School once more. I will issue a full list of our benefactors next month as I want to be sure that no one is left out.

We have welcomed a brand-new cohort of pupils. This year we took 24 pupils into Reception Class. This is a huge cohort for us, pushing our overall number of pupils to 119. As well as this, we took in a few more students throughout the school, all going to show what a successful, thriving school we have. All our new children seem to have settled in well, despite the slightly different arrangements we have in place to protect us in this new environment. Handwashing is the new norm here, taking a large percentage of the school day, but the children have taken it all in their stride and everyone seems happy to be back to some sort of normality.

Our two new teachers have also settled in well. Miss Goodman and Mr Harvey have both made a great start to life at St Teath and are already popular with pupils and parents. We are hoping to welcome back volunteers in the coming weeks, so if you would like to help out regularly in school, please get in touch and let us know.

If all else fails, read the instructions.

The quickest way to do many things, is to do one thing at a time.

To live is not merely to breathe, it is to act.

Today is tomorrow's good old days.

THANK YOU

Chris and Dee DUDLESTON would like to thank all their friends and neighbours who helped to make their 50th Wedding Anniversary such a special one. Special thanks to Barry for allowing us to use the pub garden in the morning and for the delicious food in the afternoon, and to Adrian for providing the music.

FROM THE WASHINGTON POST'S MENSA INVITATIONAL

Readers were invited to take any word from the dictionary and then alter it by adding, subtracting or changing one letter and supplying a new definition.

1. CASHRATION: The act of buying a house which renders the subject financially impotent for the rest of their life.
2. INTAXICATION: Euphoria at getting a tax refund which lasts until you realise it was your money in the first place.
3. BEELZEBUG: Satan in the form of a mosquito that gets into your bedroom at 3am and cannot be cast out.
4. BOZONE: The substance surrounding stupid people that stops bright ideas from penetrating (The bozone layer unfortunately shows little sign of breaking down in the near future.)
5. GIRAFFITI: Vandalism sprayed very high.
6. SARCHASM: The gulf between the author of sarcastic wit and the person who doesn't 'get' it.
7. INNOCULATTE: To take coffee intravenously when you are running late.
8. OSTEOPORNOSIS: A degenerate disease. (This one got extra credit)
9. KARMAGEDDON: It's like, when everybody is sending off all these really bad vibes, right? And then, like, the Earth explodes and it's like, a serious bummer.
10. DECAFALON: The gruelling event of getting through the day consuming only things that are good for you.
11. GLIBIDO: All talk and no action.
12. CATERPALLOR: The colour you turn after finding half a worm in the fruit you're eating.

Any budding MENSA candidates with time on their hands could perhaps have a go at creating some of these? We'll print the best. (ED)

ENDELIENTA

We have a treat coming up on 26th September in the form of the wonderful People's String Foundation Duo. The duo mix artisan flavours with urban/world beats, creating compositions which are melodic, wistful, and dynamic, designed to get people's toes tapping. This time they have their virtual orchestra! Pre-recorded at Hall for Cornwall the virtual orchestra allows People's String Foundation the ability to create exceptional musical experiences whilst providing a unique blend of live and digital performance.

As with all our concerts 2 metre social distancing will be in place and masks will need to be worn for the duration of the performances. We would strongly advise booking in advance for these concerts as there is a reduced capacity from 200 seats to 40.

With schools going back we have decided to restart our family Make Club at St Endellion Hall. At the time of writing we have the following sessions planned:

26th Sept – Mobiles, make a Calder inspired mobile using recycled plastic and card. Explore how to balance the shapes and think about colour and composition.

17th Oct - Paper Collage Dioramas, using found materials and little toys build a story scene, bring a shoe box and any little plastic figure/animal to include in it. Collage materials provided.

21st Nov- Repeat pattern printing wrapping paper and cards. Make a simple repeat pattern print to decorate wrapping paper and cards for Christmas. For more information please see our website, join our Make Club Facebook group or email Katy@endelienta.org.uk. Safety measures will be in place at each of these sessions and all are subject to change if new government guidelines are issued.

We will be hosting more Endelienta events this autumn, however we won't be running a season as normal due to the current, ever changing environment. So please follow our social media and website for the latest news and updates on what's happening at Endelienta.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations and thanks to Anne on her new book. 'St Teath a village through time,' a fascinating history of our wonderful village. The result of many years' research, it takes the reader into the life and times of the people and places in the parish. It is amazing the number of times I thought, 'Oh yes, we did something like that not so many years ago.' We were transported back through time and enjoyed every page.

Copies are available from Anne and from Lorraine on 01208 850 650

(Anne would just like to make clear that this notice arrived totally unsolicited and that no money changed hands at any point. Thank you very much, David, for this lovely review. ED)

WHAT HARD WORK BRINGS YOU...

Every morning, the CEO of a large bank in Manhattan walks to the corner where a shoe-shine fellow is always located. He sits down on the chair, reads the Wall Street Journal and the shoe-shine gives his shoes a shiny, excellent look.

One morning the shoe-shine asks the Executive Director, "What do you think about the situation in the stock market?"

"Why are you so interested in that - that topic?" the Director asks arrogantly.

"I have $1,000,000 in your bank," the shoe-shine says, "and I need to invest it."

"What 's your name?" asks the Director.

"John Smith H."

The Director checks up at his bank. "Do we have a client named John Smith H.?"

"Certainly," comes the answer, "He has $1,000,000 in his account."

The Director comes out and asks the shoe-shine: "Mr. Smith, will you be guest of honour at our board meeting and tell us the story of your life? I'm sure we can all learn from you."

At the board meeting, Mr. Smith began his story: "I came to this country 50 years ago as a young immigrant. I got off the ship without a cent. I was hungry and tired. I wandered around looking for a job but to no avail. Then I found a coin on the sidewalk and I bought an apple. I had two options: eat the apple and quench my hunger or start a business. I sold the apple for $2 and bought two apples. I sold them and continued in business. When I had enough dollars, I bought a set of used brushes and polish and started polishing shoes. I didn't spend a cent on entertainment or clothing, I just bought bread and cheese to survive. I saved every cent and after a while I bought new brushes and polish and expanded my clientele. I lived like a monk and saved every cent. Later I bought a chair, so my clients could sit down and that brought me more clients. I didn't spend a cent on the joys of life. I saved every cent. A few years ago, when the previous shoe-shine here retired, I had saved enough to buy his location at this great place. Finally, three months ago, my sister, who was a hooker in Chicago, passed away and left me a million dollars."

WHEN THE WORLD IS UPSIDE DOWN...

Today was the absolute worst day ever

And don't try to convince me that

There's something good in every day

Because, when you take a closer look,

This world is a pretty evil place

Even if

Some goodness does shine through once in a while

Satisfaction and happiness don't last.

And it's not true that

It's all in the mind and heart

Because

True happiness can be obtained

Only if one's surroundings are good

It's not true that good exists

I'm sure you can agree that

The reality

Creates

My attitude

It's all beyond my control

And you'll never in a million years hear me say that

Today was a good day.

Now try reading from the bottom up...

A Methodist Minister's View

I recall reading a newspaper article a few weeks ago which indicated that a large majority of the television programmes available to us at the present time are 'repeated' programmes. That is understandable in the present climate, but even prior to the prevailing pandemic the 'repeats' were in the majority. However, when you see a programme for the second time round you often learn something different from it.

Quite recently there was a repeat of a Piers Morgan interview with the athlete, Mo Farah, which was originally made in 2016. Mo Farah was knighted in the New Years Honours list of 2017 for his services to athletics after his successes at the 2016 Olympic Games. The learning point for me from the programme was that Mo Farah had established a Trust Fund to make provision for the people of his village in Somalia, which he had visited with his family. Here is an example of a person seeking to share with those very much less privileged from his personal resources, and probably using his influence amongst other potential givers.

This story came my way at a time when I had been thinking about the situation amongst most of our charitable organisations at this time. Our charities are finding their work hampered because their income streams have been affected by the current crisis.

Some are trying various on-line schemes to prompt people to give. My shrewd guess is that those schemes will not produce the same income as some of their regular annual events and appeals. Our local charities such as the Hospices and the Air Ambulance are starved of funds as well as the national charitable causes like the Cancer appeals and Christian Aid, although still continuing to work albeit perhaps on a smaller scale.

Caring for people in need has been a concern throughout the ages right from biblical times. We find references for the need to make provision for the poor in the Old Testament e.g. see Leviticus 19: 9 & 10, and the New Testament e.g. James 1:27. The current situation is a challenge to us to respond, perhaps with direct giving in the absence of the fund raising events which you support in a year. Hopefully, we are all concerned about the situation and will respond as we are able.

Every blessing,
Bryan Ede

GOOD NEWS!

At last we can announce some good news - St Teath Christmas Lights, which were in doubt due to the numbers of people who would be gathering together to put them up, will be allowed to go ahead as usual, but without a mass Switch-On ceremony or Christmas Market, of course. Hooray!

PAUSE FOR THOUGHT

I enjoyed the spring, and early summer this year was glorious, wasn't it? Quite a compensation in those early days of lockdown. But mid and late summer seem to have passed me by this year – a combination of the situation, the poor weather and too much admin keeping me at my desk (as I am now) on a sunny afternoon! I have felt drained by the ongoing restrictions and overwhelmed at the thought of how long they might go on for – those feelings are understandable and to be expected and I know I'm not alone in feeling like that from time to time.

But just yesterday as I felt the chill of early autumn in the air I found myself thinking, 'I love autumn, I must make space to appreciate and enjoy it this year.' Then today I read again this prayer-poem that sums up exactly how I feel, perhaps it might resonate with you too?

O, extravagant God,
 in this ripening, red-tinged autumn,
 waken in me a sense of joy
 in just being alive,
 joy for nothing in general except everything in particular;
 joy in sun and rain
 mating with earth to birth a harvest;
 joy in soft light
 through shyly disrobing trees;
 joy in the acolyte moon
 setting halos around processing clouds;
 joy in the beating of a thousand wings
 mysteriously knowing which way is warm;
 joy in wagging tails and kids' smiles;
 joy in the taste of bread and wine,
 the smell of dawn,
 a touch,
 a song,
 a presence;
 joy in love,
 in you:
 and that all at first and last is grace.

May God bless you with many moments of joy this autumn, in spite of everything.

Angela,
 Rector of the Camel-Allen Churches
