Methodist Musings – Faith for All!

Many thanks Rev Brian Ede for all that you have brought to these pages over a long period of time. Your words will have been an inspiration to many and have given us all challenges to ponder.

Too many times I hear that people can't come to church because they are not good enough: 'I once did this' or 'I got into trouble when I was a teenager' or 'I am a terrible person'. Jesus once said to some religious leaders, "Whoever is without sin cast the first stone." One by one they left, and the victim of their accusations was able to walk away.

Jesus didn't come to condemn the world and its people – rather, he came to give new life and fresh opportunity for us all to have a relationship with God and with one another. He knows that we mess up at times, and yet he still loves us and wants us to love others unreservedly in just the same way.

How quick we too can be to condemn others' mistakes, just as the religious leaders of Jesus's time did. It's all too easy to see problems elsewhere and yet often we don't know half of the story before we start making judgements. Maybe doing so takes the focus off our own mistakes.

I used to visit a young offenders' centre and many of the young people there had ended up on a downhill slope that saw their freedom taken away. For many it had been small steps of wrong at the beginning and things had then taken a sudden turn for the worse as they got drawn into wrongdoing.

Jesus died on the cross and defeated death for all people, not just those who consider themselves good, but especially for those who have done things wrong, for all who others might condemn and for those who others might ignore. Jesus came to show and share love for the sick, the poor, the marginalised, and to speak out against injustice.

He calls us to show and share love in the same way to all people. No one is ever too bad to have a faith or to come to church. God does of course want us to be better as we grow in love, but just as he has accepted others from where they are for thousands of years, he accepts each one of us today. Know him and share his love!

Blessings

Youth Football Special: St Teath AFC

St Teath AFC provides the opportunity to play football in a safe environment with a focus on each player's enjoyment and development, with fun being a big factor overall!

Experienced coaches train our teams to reach their highest potential and to always have a great time whenever we play. Our youth teams have been around since 2013 and are growing year on year – with the help of many generous volunteers, we are proud to have 11 youth teams this year.

As well as having a lot of fun, we had some fantastic results recently:

Our U14 Girls (below) beat Redruth in an exciting match. We are so proud of them.

Our U11s (below) played their last game of the season and had a fantastic result. (Continued...)

Our U13s (see front cover, top) are a true inspiration, always smiling and showing up every week with a positive attitude and real team spirit. We can't wait to see what next season brings.

There was a fantastic result for our U12 girls (see front cover, middle) recently who won their first match. Amazing team work and dedication has well and truly paid off. We are proud of you all, girls!!

In the last game of the season for our U15s (see front cover, bottom), they ended on a high with a fantastic win against Dobwalls. Each and every player deserved player of the day, we couldn't be more proud if we tried. They are a great bunch of lads and we can't wait for next season!

A big well done to our U16s (above) who played Saltash recently in a very competitive game.

And our U12s (below) won the cup final! WELL DONE EVERYONE!

St Teath AFC is a volunteer-run, not-for-profit organisation. We could not do this without an army of willing volunteers giving up hundreds of volunteer hours per week. The club is growing all the time and we are always on the lookout for volunteers for coaching and non-coaching roles.

St Teath Parish Council

Annual Parish Meeting

On 24th April, St Teath Parish Council put the kettle on and cracked open the good biscuits to welcome the parish to their annual meeting. This yearly meeting is open to anyone who wants to attend. It provides an opportunity to ask questions of the parish council, share concerns and celebrate successes.

County Councillor Dominic Fairman opened the meeting by sharing his admiration for everything that St Teath achieves as a parish and said he felt there was exemplary activity from the Parish Council in helping to make St Teath a model village in the way it works as a community, for the community and in the community. Several parishioners also thanked the Parish Council for all their hard work and commitment to the village over the past year.

Following a parishioner's question, Cllr Kerri Kitto explained the progress of the VAS traffic calming cameras in the village. We all hope that these contribute to making the village a safer place. This was followed by presentations by seven local community groups and organisations, which shared their achievements and their plans for the year ahead. Several groups requested the need for more volunteers and there were lots of sharing ideas and support between groups.

Cllr Kerri then gave an overview of the Community Sparks Fund: £6,970 has been granted in this year's fund. It will continue to run annually, and this year's deadline for submissions is 30 September 2024. The meeting ended with Cllr Kerri thanking everyone for attending and for their continued hard work and dedication to improving our lives in the parish.

Flowers and Footballs in the Field

Last autumn, the Parish Council submitted a bid to the Community Infrastructure levy fund with the intention of purchasing some land for the parish to be used by St Teath AFC children's football and to include a wildflower walk that will circle the main pitch. We are very pleased to say that that funding bid was successful and we have just completed on the sale of this land.

We are currently working alongside the football club to complete the fencing, and with the Community Gardeners to provide some planting in the walking area. We look forward to seeing the new space in use by the community in the coming months.

St Teath Rubbish Ramblers

Come and join the St Teath Rubbish Ramblers to help keep our lovely village and surrounding roads clear of all that annoying, unsightly litter.

The team meets informally every first and third Thursday of the month at 10 am by the White Hart pub. Forthcoming dates are 6th and 20th June, and 4th and 18th July. New helpers are always welcome. Please dress visibly, wear gloves and bring a bin bag. Routes range from short and flat, to the longer, hilly ones. Coffee and chat afterwards.

St Teath Community Gardeners

St Teath Community Gardeners have been spending some time up at the School, helping to transform their garden area. We've been tidying the veg beds (pictured), repairing the stone wall and popping in some new plants. Thanks to everyone who came and helped. There's lots more to do: if anyone would like to join us, keep a look out for future dates.

St Teath Primary School

The pupils and staff were so excited with the start of the beautiful weather last week which meant we could get back onto our field; preparation for our annual sports day is already in full swing! This term we have been remembering and celebrating the wonderful work of the RNLI and were so excited to have lifeguard volunteers in to speak to us about the important work they do. We worked together as a whole school to create our entrance display celebrating 200 years of the RNLI.

In the Early Years Foundation Stage (EYFS), we had a very exciting new pet. The EYFS Team announced that there was a dinosaur loose in the school! (Pictured left.) We did not panic and Elm class soon chased him off (pictured below left) and built a dinosaur trap in case he returned. They told us that we should look after him as he is very rare. They then made warning posters to place around school and cooked lava cakes to tempt him back (pictured below right). It was a very exciting week!

Sycamore and Willow classes have been busy concentrating on creating fantastic stories and recounts linked to their class topics whilst Oak class have been amazing scientists this term: discussing, investigating and exploring liquids and solids. Year 6 children have been working hard getting ready for their SATs and transition to high school – and all the children have been preparing for our end of term show! We are very excited for this: please look out for tickets next term.

We would also like to say a big thank you to the community, especially our wonderful Open the Book volunteers who come in on Wednesdays to work with the children, and the St Teath Community Gardeners who are transforming the school grounds. The pupils and staff really appreciate all your support.

We are working closely with St Teath Preschool and look forward to sharing more details shortly.

June 2024 Events at St Endellion (Port Isaac PL29 3TP)

Harbottle & Jonas

St Endellion Church | Saturday 1 June, 7.30pm | £10 | Free for under 16s

Partners in life and music, dynamic Devon-based folk duo Harbottle & Jonas are one of the most exciting acts on the UK circuit today. The duo combine a love of traditional folk with their own original and powerful songwriting. Dave and Freya have developed a distinct and compelling signature sound, blending concertina, harmonium, banjo, stomp box, acoustic guitar and cittern with their beautiful and closely intertwined vocal harmonies. Their energetic shows cover the historical as well as the more personal, bringing to life people, places and events through their intimate, timeless music.

Tickets available at: <https://endelienta.org.uk/>

Make Club: Op Art

Saturday 22 June, 10am-12pm | St Endellion Hall | £5 per family

Inspired by artist Bridget Riley, we will be playing with patterns and colour to explore Op Art (optical art). Each month we have new creative ideas to keep the whole family busy. The Make Club is a fun space to explore, create and get messy. The workshops are led by inspirational artists and makers. Remember to book in advance as tickets sell out fast.

Tickets available at: <https://endelienta.org.uk/>

Kernow Philharmonic Orchestra

St Endellion Church | Saturday 22 June, 7.30pm | £10 | Free for accompanied under 16s

Kernow Philharmonic Orchestra make their first visit to St Endellion with a charming evening of music. The concert will open with two of England's finest composers, Lennox Berkeley and Gerald Finzi. The Serenade for Strings is one of Berkeley's finest works, followed by Finzi's charming Dies Natalis featuring tenor soloist Ben Hoadley. Kernow Philharmonic Orchestra will close the night with Mozart's ever popular Symphony No 40.

Kernow Philharmonic Orchestra was formed in 2023 from some of the finest freelance musicians in Cornwall and have since given two highly successful concerts in Truro Cathedral. They will be conducted at St Endellion by their Musical Director John Longstaff.

A Lay Minister Writes...

Dear Friends,

Do you do an everyday task in a particular way because doing it like that reminds you of something, or someone, special and/or perhaps it makes you smile? No? Just me? Surely not!

Anyhow, let me share how I boil an egg: room temperature, free-range local eggs gently placed into water that's just approaching a rolling boil for exactly three minutes and seventeen seconds; remove eggs from water; place in eggcup and bash 'em. Perfectly dippy every time.

The key? 3 minutes 17 seconds. Not really for a culinary reason, more because it reminds me of my favourite Bible passage, which, if you haven't yet come across it, let me introduce you... It's tucked away towards the end of the Old Testament, written by a chap few have heard of, Zephaniah. He only penned three chapters. This is verse 17 of the final one, and there's a lot in it:

'For the Lord your God is living among you.
He is a mighty saviour. He will take delight in you with gladness.
He will calm you with his love. He will rejoice over you with joyful songs.'

Can you imagine? This is the God who created everything and everyone here now – living with us. Not just here, but delighting in us with gladness. What does that look like, I wonder? Well, we are told that he made each one of us and that he was very pleased. Sure, there are things we say and do which cause him pain, but God is a loving God, to whom we can return when we stop those actions. We can say and mean 'sorry', and he welcomes us back with open arms.

He calms us with his love. There is nothing that ever surprises God, nor takes him aback; nothing that he can't cope with; nothing he's not seen before. Through his son Jesus's time on Earth, he gets how being human feels. Whatever is going on for us, we can turn to him; he's right here and he understands it (that's not to say he will take it away, for earthly life is what it is) but he will walk in it, with us.

Then we come to the most amazing bit: 'He will rejoice over you with joyful songs.' What does that sound like, I wonder? The song of a wren or a great massed choir and orchestra? A baby's cry or the crashing of waves? Perhaps joyful songs are more visual – the Northern Lights (visible from even Delabole in May) or a butterfly's wing? Whatever it is, God says, 'He will rejoice over you with joyful songs.'

Now, what happens when we say it out loud, changing the word 'you' to 'me'? 'The Lord will calm ME with his love. He will rejoice over ME with joyful songs.' WOW! How brilliant is that? We have only scratched the surface of my favourite verse, Zephaniah 3:17. Yet, here we have it – a culinary top tip and I pray: words of hope, reassurance and total joy.

County Council

Every year, as summer approaches, there is inevitably talk at Cornwall Council about the pros and cons of a Tourist Tax. Cornwall receives around 4 million holiday visits each year, as well as around 12 million day-trippers. While this provides nearly £1 billion to the Cornish economy, it does not come without significant cost and pressure on our roads, waste, policing and water, and the benefits and drawbacks are in no way evenly distributed within the county.

It would no doubt be a contentious move to introduce such a scheme, but many tourism hotspots around the world have already implemented tourist taxes and many others are now experiencing protests from local people against “overtourism”. This is a phrase that could equally be applied to many parts of Cornwall: describing an industry that provides mostly low-wage seasonal jobs, while putting immense pressure on the availability of local housing for local people.

In the UK, many areas are already starting down the tourist-tax road, with Liverpool and Manchester placing an additional levy on their business rates for accommodation and then encouraging providers to pass this on as an additional item – or tax – on their invoices. This also happens in Blackpool, Great Yarmouth and the Tweed Valley, and Cambridge is proposing a similar scheme.

A fully fledged tourist tax would require primary legislation, and the devolved governments in Scotland and Wales, who already have powers to do so, have both promised to bring this forward. In addition, the long-promised introduction of compulsory registration of short-term holiday lets (such as Airbnb) should help to make any scheme work fairly, and there are many other councils across the country actively lobbying now for all of this to be brought forward.

A recent committee report at New County Hall on tourism included a recommendation for the Council to be heavily involved in a new Local Visitor Economy Partnership – a Tourist Board to you and me – but did not address the idea of a tax on visitors in any way, shape or form. I suspect that this is due to pressure from the current Conservative administration, which does not favour such a move.

As we will now have both local and general elections within the next 12 months, it will be interesting to see which parties are bold enough to make this a manifesto promise. Personally, I feel that this is an idea whose time has come. It has proved to be workable and sustainable in other locations, and I do not believe that Cornwall would be unduly disadvantaged or suffer economically if fairly implemented - it might even be seen as a positive measure by promoting responsible tourism. Each £1 of levy raised per night could provide around £24M for local public services – many of which, of course, also benefit the many visitors attracted to our beautiful corner of the country.

Welcome to the Village

Spring has finally sprung. The sparrows are tweeting in their nests and there are some lovely new villagers in St Teath.

Welcome Maeva Rose, who was born on 3rd March. Congratulations to Hannah and Darren Burden and to Maeva's big sister Lola.

Welcome twin boys Ralph and Ted, who were born on 1st April. Congratulations to Amy and Lee Hughes.

Thank you

Lorraine and David would like to send a big thank you to Marion Goodbourn for the wonderful knitted items she has made for Merlin.

Condolences

We send condolences and deepest sympathies to Edwin and family after hearing of the death of Stella Simpson. Stella's funeral service was held on 20th May at St Teath Church, where she and Edwin worshipped for many years.

Huge thanks from your Timepiece Team

Ben Saves The Day

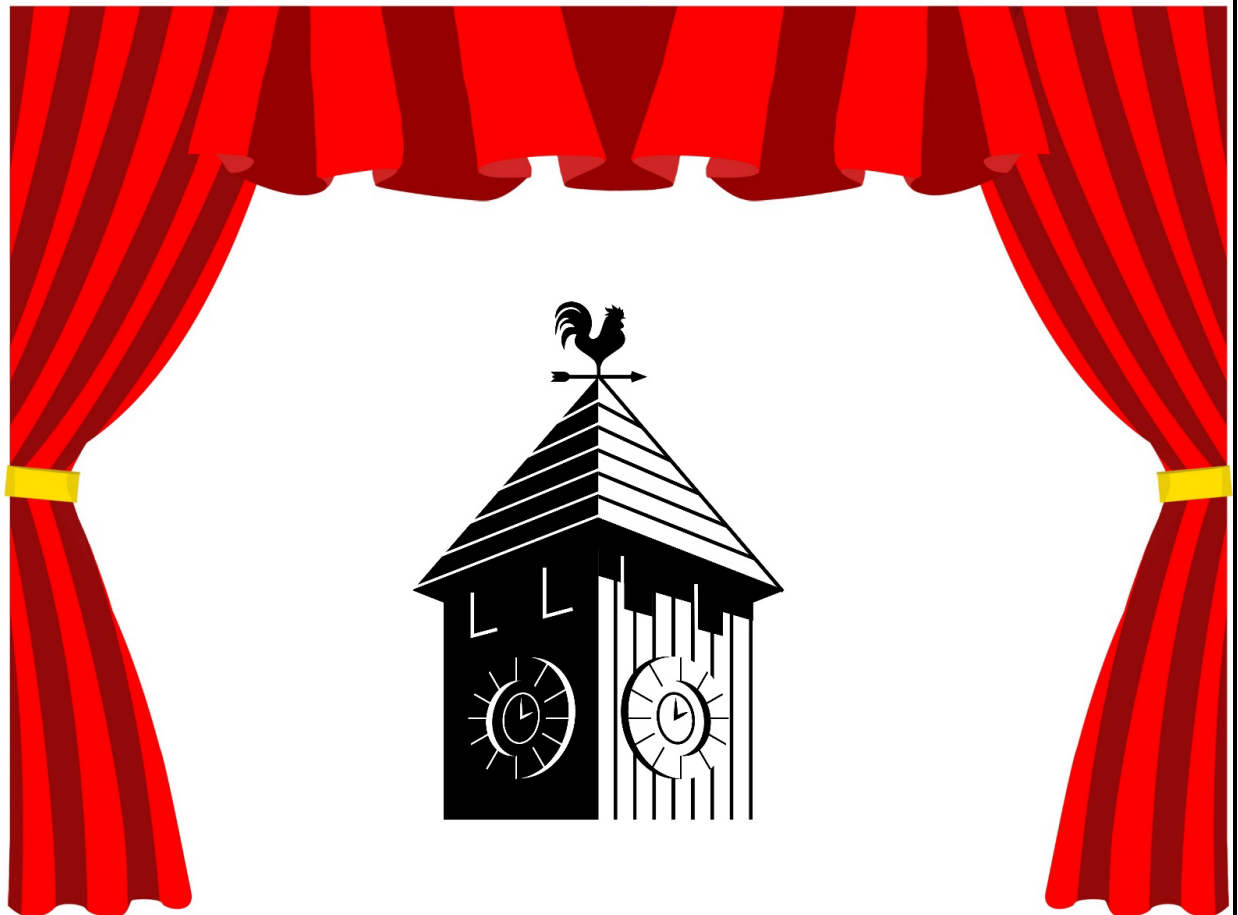

The Timepiece Team (and we are sure, the whole village!) would like to extend their thanks and appreciation to Ben Broadhurst, who has kindly stepped in this month to print the Timepiece free of charge. Thank you so much, Ben, for coming to our rescue while our usual printing service is out of action. We are truly grateful for your generosity.

Bingo Bonanza

It was a full house in the Church Hall on Friday 17th May for the Timepiece Bingo Night. A packed hall enjoyed a fantastic evening ably compèred by our bingo caller Kevin Hargrave. As well as all having a lot of fun, we raised the amazing sum of £865 for this village magazine. Other donations totalling £455 have also been received from some very kind folk so far, which should keep the Timepiece printing until next year. Thank you one and all!

Anne and Jo would also like to thank Kevin and everyone who came along; Tracy, Fleur and Carol for organising the hall, refreshments and prizes; Yvonne and Jean for their help; Suzie, Elaine, Tricia and Lyn for front of house; and all the generous people who donated prizes for the raffle.
